

(1) An applicant's past performance in meeting financial obligations, especially rent;

(2) A record of disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property, or living or housekeeping habits at prior residences which may adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of other tenants; and

(3) A history of criminal activity involving crimes of physical violence to persons or property and other criminal acts which would adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of other tenants.

(c) The criteria to be established shall be reasonably related to attaining, to the maximum extent feasible, a tenant body in each project that is composed of families with a broad range of incomes. PHAs shall develop criteria, by local preference or otherwise, which will be reasonably calculated to attain the basic objective. The criteria developed shall be sufficiently flexible to assure administrative feasibility. A dwelling unit should not be allowed to remain vacant for the purpose of awaiting application by a family falling within the appropriate range.

(d) In the event of the receipt of unfavorable information with respect to an applicant, consideration shall be given to the time, nature, and extent of the applicant's conduct and to factors which might indicate a reasonable probability of favorable future conduct or financial prospects. For example:

(1) Evidence of rehabilitation;

(2) Evidence of the applicant family's participation in or willingness to participate in social service or other appropriate counseling service programs and the availability of such programs;

(3) Evidence of the applicant family's willingness to attempt to increase family income and the availability of training or employment programs in the locality.

§ 960.206 Verification procedures.

(a) General. Adequate procedures must be developed to obtain and verify information with respect to each applicant. (See 24 CFR parts 5 and 913.) Information relative to the acceptance or rejection of an applicant or the grant or denial of a ranking preference, or a local preference under 24 CFR part 5 must be documented and placed in the applicant's file.

(b) Suggested sources of information. Sources of information may include, but are not limited to, the applicant (by means of interviews or home visits), landlords, employers, family social workers, parole officers, court records, drug treatment centers, clinics, physicians or police departments where warranted by the particular circumstances.

(c) Tenant advisory boards. The PHA may establish Tenant Advisory Boards for consultation in connection with the tenant selection process.

§ 960.207 Notification to applicants.

(a) The PHA must promptly notify any applicant determined to be ineligible for admission to a project of the basis for such determination, and must provide the applicant upon request, within a reasonable time after the determination is made, with an opportunity for an informal hearing on such determination.

(b) When a determination has been made that an applicant is eligible and satisfies all requirements for admission, including the tenant selection criteria, the applicant must be notified of the approximate date of occupancy insofar as that date can be reasonably determined.
